WORK EXPERIENCE

Digital Project Lead & Business Advisor MAR 2025—PRESENT
CHIBITRONICS, REMOTE · CONTRACT

- Led scoping and cross-functional coordination for a full Chibitronics website redesign, aligning design, development, and stakeholder input to improve UX and product navigation for educator, maker, and crafter audiences.
- Mapped and implemented a customer success journey for a new product lineup, aligning stakeholders on onboarding flow design and coordinating content production across three distinct user audiences.
- Acted as primary advisor on brand strategy refresh, aligning internal teams and external partners around a unified creative direction and growth strategy.
- Coordinated product and content development created jointly with contributors, managing briefs and deliverables to expand the Chibitronics paper circuits system.

Head of Education

FEB 2019—FEB 2024

STRAWBEES, REMOTE

- Owned the collaborative content and creative production roadmap for the Strawbees SaaS learning platform launch. Partnered with the CTO and Head of Design to align content, community, and creative workstreams across a distributed team through the transition from product to SaaS.
- Designed and managed a global Ambassador Program from framework to delivery, partnering with the Head of Marketing on program launch. Led 3 cohorts of 15 educators across 6+ countries, owning recruitment, onboarding, deliverable tracking, and community content output.
- Managed content production pipelines across a team of contracted educators, photographers, and designers. Briefed, reviewed, and approved deliverables to maintain platform quality and delivery timelines.
- Partnered with the Head of Marketing and Head of Design to launch an e-commerce storefront and new Strawbees website.
- Managed international market launches with the Sales team, and joint partnerships with organizations across Europe and Asia, plus institutional partners UN Information Centres and the Swedish Institute. Owned localization, approvals, timelines, and partner communications through adoption.

Content and Community Manager

STRAWBEES, GOTHENBURG · STARTED AS CONSULTING

FEB 2017—JAN 2019

- Joined Strawbees as an early hire during the grassroots stage, establishing the content and community function from zero. Built internal workflows for content production, community management, and creative output that scaled with the company, earning promotion to Head of Education.
- Built a global educator community of 629 teachers, establishing it as the primary engagement and support channel for the Strawbees user base.
- Created the operational framework for the Ambassador program, defining scope, recruitment criteria, deliverables, and success metrics. This became the structure that later scaled to 6+ countries across 3 cohorts.
- Authored and edited 100+ platform resources, including detailed guides, video tutorials, lesson plans, and printed kit guidebooks. Managed production from brief through final delivery.
